No to racial-sensitive views online

ONLINE views that are different are alright.

But not when such Net postings threaten Singapore's racial and religious harmony.

Minister for Community Development, Youth and Sports, Dr Vivian Balakrishnan, said yesterday that the Government is willing to "listen to honestly-held views of responsible people, especially when they are different".

But it takes seriously its duty to "maintain the integrity and security of the State".

On Tuesday, a 24-year-old man was arrested for making racist remarks on his blog.
